That one overachiever who said becoming an adult is easy? Liar. Take it from Sarah Andersen, a twenty-something introvert who loves cats, hates getting up, overthinks, under plans, and is conflicted about the Internet. In this Adulthood Is a Myth 2020 day-to-day calendar, she chronicles the leap (or maybe the crawl through molten lava?) from geeky kid to (hopefully) less geeky grownup. It features a wrap-around easel printed with full-color art, and each page's true-to-life comic captures what it's really like to make your way from the safety of school and parents to a world that actually expects you to be an adult.
