Evaluating and choosing music for Christian worship should be a careful process guided primarily by theological considerations Pastors consistories musicians choir directors and worship committees may be aided in this process by being attentive to the following suggested guidelines. Fiction by Jeffrey Eugenides ?Eugene?s little secret He wanted to be beautiful If that didn?t work noticeable would do ?. 112 In the local Church first place should certainly be given because of its significance to the Mass at which the Bishop presides surrounded by his Presbyterate Deacons and lay ministers and in which the holy People of God participate fully and actively for it is there that the principal manifestation of the Church is found. A Message for My Fellow ?Mature Believers? We sometimes use the term ?mature believers ? when we?re referring to older Christians But if we really are mature believers we should be able to worship Jesus in any situation no matter what the style of music is.
